

PROCLAMATION

Miami-Dade County School Board Member

WHEREAS, on Thursday, September 24, 2015, the GOODING Band is performing at Miami Beach Senior High School for students with an emphasis on Financial Literacy during the concert presentation; and

WHEREAS, with the sponsorship of the Steckler Wealth Management Group and the nonprofit organization Funding the Future Live, the Gooding Band is educating students across the county on the importance of smart financial decisions, through a multimedia presentation; and

WHEREAS, through a concert, multimedia presentation and talkback, the GOODING Band discusses predatory lending, the danger of credit card debt, the importance of saving early, while exposing the myth of rock stars, athletes and actors who sell the false image of overnight success; and

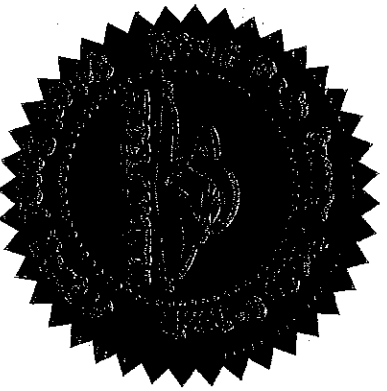

WHEREAS, students who do not receive this message early often drop out of college and return to the same cycle of financial peril as their parents; and

WHEREAS, participants learn tools to make informed decisions throughout their lives, gaining the discipline and confidence to see their own dreams as possibilities;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

This proclamation recognizing the GOODING BAND for inspiring young people with lessons of finance and discipline to help them see their own dreams as possibilities.

Presented this twenty-fourth day of September, A.D. 2015

giving our students the world

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'M. Karp'.

Dr. Martin S. Karp
School Board Member

Miami-Dade County
Public Schools